

Mindframe Plus training

Communicating about suicide and mental illness for community members

As part of LifeSpan Newcastle, the Mindframe National Media Initiative will be delivering training in Newcastle on national guidelines for media reporting of suicide and mental illness and the Conversations Matter suite of resources that support community discussions about suicide.

If you are a spokesperson, or would just like to know more about how to communicate responsibly about suicide and mental illness, please join us for this free event.

Tuesday 12 September
12:30 - 3:30pm
Hamilton Baptist Church Hall
108 Lindsay St, Hamilton 2303

To register for this event, email Tegan.Cotterill@hnehealth.nsw.gov.au

Mindframe and Conversations Matter are initiatives of the Hunter Institute of Mental Health. To find out more about LifeSpan Newcastle, visit our website.
